Manchester

Opening times:

The work What is Wealth? by RELAX (chiarenza & hauser & co) forms part of a larger collaborative exhibition at Cornerhouse, Manchester's international centre for contemporary visual arts and film, called Unrealised Potential. The show aims to explore the creative potential of artists' unrealised projects, blurring the lines between artist, curator, visitor and producer. For the Zurich based artist group this marks their first UK exhibition.

Gallery 3 presents the first UK display of Strategic Question 2002-2010 curated by Gavin Wade, director of Eastside Projects Birmingham, with this new commission from RELAX. Strategic Questions is part of an ongoing project to develop forty projects from forty questions written by R. Buckminster Fuller, an American architect and inventor, to be answered through art projects and publications. Each project is an artwork or a combination of artworks, developed in response to one of the questions. For this exhibition, RELAX are creating a work in response to question 29. What is Wealth? Visitors will be invited to consider waste as wealth through an installation containing a new publication, a caged depository of strategic answers, and a process of exchange of personal wealth.
